

STATE LIBRARY OF QUEENSLAND

Client Queensland Government Scope Wayfinding Signage Time frame 2004-2006

The refurbishment of the Queensland State Library has more than doubled the size of the facility. The finished library is a five story complex storing major collections but also offering many levels of engagement and interaction with the community. The sign program uses the central void to name and number levels to give all visitors a sense of how the space is organised.

