

SUTHERLAND SHIRE WATER WAY MARKERS

Client Sutherland Shire Council Scope Wayfinding and Signage Timeframe 2005

Sutherland Shire is the gateway to Sydney's South and is synonymous with the beach and its many natural settings. These markers hold a great deal of different types of information; location identity, regulation information, warnings of potential dangers and they can accommodate a removable panel warning of dangerous conditions. They also serve as a locator for ambulance and rescue services.